

MAY 26, 2015 TLT WEBINAR ON STUDENT ORIENTATION
TRANSCRIPT OF CHAT SESSION

Is Orientation Mandatory at each of your schools? If not, what percentage of students attend?

3:05 PM

How many sessions are offered at each college?

3:05 PM

During the sessions, do you close down your enrollment services department since the staff is participating?

3:06 PM

Are Library staff part of the orientations at York and Midlands? If not, is the library mentioned at all?

3:06 PM

also, how many staff members work within your enrollment division?

how many students (on average) do you have participate in these on-campus orientation sessions

3:07 PM

Are faculty involved in each orientation. More specifically Midlands... It seems as though you have an orientation 2-3 times each week.

Can students register for classes prior to attend Orientation? 3:07 PM piggybacking on Austin...do you utilize registration holds

3:13 PM

How are you incorporating or have you incorporated mandatory Title IX student training in your orientation process or how are you providing mandatory Title IX training?

Do your orientations include anything specifically related to preparing students for online/hybrid courses?

3:17 PM

Is there a penalty for those who so not attend NSO since its mandatory for each of you.

3:19 PM

Questions for Aiken Tech: How many students normally attend each session? How do you budget to feed your attendees? What is the length of your NSFO?

3:23 PM

we have different school sizes, piggying on York what is your budget for Orientation?

3:25 PM

Do any of you have a component that takes place after classes begin?

TRANSCRIPT OF CHAT SESSION

3:28 PM

How do you get faculty to come to so many orientations? I think they'd not want to attend so many seeing how often midlands and york have orientation.
